

2nd International AHORA Conference Program

Philosophy for Children in Central Europe: Civic Engagement as a Challenge to Hegemony

Dates: 28–29 November 2025 (Online)

Time Zone: Central European Time (CET, UTC+1)

Language: English

Introduction

The NGO “Philosophy for Children and Adults” (Ukraine), together with the NGO Philosophical Education Association “Phronesis” (Poland), NGO “Estonian Dialogue Academy” (Estonia) and Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory (Serbia), invite educators, teachers, scholars, and interested individuals to participate in the 2nd International Conference “Philosophy for Children in Central Europe: Civic Engagement as a Challenge to Hegemony”. The event aims to explore the role of children’s philosophical education as a catalyst for developing a critical citizenship that resists hegemonic structures.

Target Audience: Academics, Scholars, and Educators

Hashtags: #P4cAhora

Day 1: Friday, 28 November 2025

Focus: Mapping the Landscape of P4C Praxis and Critical Pedagogy

Time (CET)	Session Type / Title	Speaker(s) / Organization
16:00 – 16:10	Welcome Words & Opening Remarks	Conference Organizers
16:10 – 16:40	School Youth About Citizenship	Dr. Dominika Depta-Marel, Association of Philosophical Education "Phronesis" (Poland)
16:40 – 17:10	From inner spaces to outer places: Philosophy with Children in Serbia	Miloš Jeremić , Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade & Požarevačka gimnazija Milica Sekulović , Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade (Serbia)
17:10 – 17:30	Networking Break
17:30 – 17:50	A Review of 17 Years of Non-Formal Education Work by Udruga Mala Filozofija (Association Petit Philosophy)	Prof. Bruno Ćurko , University of Split (Croatia)
17:50 – 18:20	From laboratory to praxis: communities of philosophical inquiry as a model of (and for) social activism	Prof. Arie Kizel (PhD) , University of Haifa (Israel)

Time (CET)	Session Type / Title	Speaker(s) / Organization
18:20 – 18:50	Building an Intercultural Practice in Estonia with Youth Dialogue Lab	Bart Cosijn & Prof. Olena Kozmenko (Estonian Dialogue Academy / Volodymyr Dahl East Ukrainian National University)
18:50 – 19:30	Reflection of the First Day	All Participants & Session Chairs

Day 2: Saturday, 29 November 2025

Focus: Tools, Technologies, and Implementation Strategies for Responsible Social Activism

Time (CET)	Session Type / Title	Speaker(s) / Organization
09:30 – 09:40	Welcome Words & Recap of Day 1	Conference Organizers
09:40 – 10:40	Panel Discussion: Effective Practices of P4C Implementing in Formal and Non-Formal Educational Settings to Foster Responsible Social Activism	All Invited Speakers & Participants
10:40 – 11:10	Pedagogical documentation as a democratic practice: what P4C could integrate from Reggio Emilia approach	Dr. Peter Paul Elicor, Kindergarten am See (Austria/The Philippines)

Time (CET)	Session Type / Title	Speaker(s) / Organization
11:10 – 11:40	Filozofik newspaper as a proposal for cooperation to promote thinking of education	Anna Szymaszczuk, Association of Philosophical Education "Phronesis" (Poland)
11:40 – 12:10	From Prompts to Philosophical Questions: Leveraging AI-Assisted Dialogue for Democratic P4C	Dr. Margarita Jeliazkova, Training Services (the Netherlands)
12:10 – 12:40	Erasmus+ KA2: GRASP: Growing Reflection and Analytical Skills through Philosophizing	Niels Van Hoof, KdG University of Applied Sciences and Art (Belgium)
12:40 – 13:10	Cultivating youth citizenship using P4C instruments: Ukrainian experience	Yuliia Kravchenko, NGO "Philosophy for Children and Adults" (Ukraine)
13:10 – 13:30	Closing Remarks	Conference Organizers

Important Attendee Information

Registration: If you would like to attend the event as a listener, please fill out the application form. The Zoom link will be sent to the email address you provide.

<https://surl.li/zrydkw>

Contact: For any questions, please contact:
kravchenko.u@gmail.com

Language of the AHORA: English

#P4cAhora